Old Time Fiddler

When you visit the Merchants Exposition this week don't fail to come back through The Floorman Mercantile Co.'s place and hear some real, old time fiddle music!

We will have a real, old fashioned fiddler who will play each night. And in addition we want you to see what a truly complete stock of Paints, Wall Paper, Brushes, Varnishes and Accessories we have on hand for your approval.

EXPOSITION BY MERCHANTS IS SHOWING GAINS

Attendance at the Merchants Exposition last night was even greater than on the opening night, Wednesday. Many out-of-town people were among the visitors last night.

The exhibitors were better prepared to entertain the visitors last night, as knowledge of the appetite of the crowd, the hours they came in greater numbers and other information had been gained the night before. More sandwiches, punch, butter milk, and cakes were served.

Hundreds registered at the voting booth for the valuable prizes which were given away. Exhibitors also distributed attractive souvenirs to the crowded demonstration of various interests interested the housewives.

The program tonight will be varied by prizes for the best layer cake and the best loaf of bread. Tainter's orchestra will furnish music again tonight at 8 p.m. last night.

The dance hall operated in connection with the exposition in front of the Panhandle Motor Company next door again drew a large crowd of dancers.

Anonymous Letters Cannot be Printed

A short open column letter was received yesterday by the Daily News signed "Two readers of the Amarillo Daily News." The News does not publish unsigned communications. If these writers will give their names to the News, the paper will be glad to publish the letter. There is nothing objectionable in the letter, but the News cannot publish communications from unknown parties.

ORCHESTRA GIVES PROGRAM FOR RADIO

The orchestra of the First Baptist church furnished a musical program for the Daily News Broadcasting station last night thereby affording the many radio fans and listeners throughout the Panhandle an unusual treat.

This orchestra is said to be the best of its kind in the Panhandle and the reason that the people of the Panhandle are lovers of music. The News is glad to have an opportunity of using the radio as a medium of affording music to a greater number of people throughout the Panhandle.

PLAINVIEW REALTORS FORM ORGANIZATION

Special to The News
PLAINVIEW, Sept. 5.—At a meeting of real estate dealers here Tuesday afternoon the Plainview Real Estate Board was organized, with E. H. Perry president, Bill Groves, vice president, and A. L. Cantrell, secretary-treasurer. John H. Gillin, president, and Hayes P. Grant, secretary, of the Amarillo board, were here to co-operate with the Plainview men in forming the local organization. The board hopes to create better working conditions among local dealers and to do more effective advertising for the territory. Affiliation will be made soon with the state and national bodies.

BOY SCOUT WORK WILL BE DISCUSSED TONIGHT

Whether Boy Scout work in Amarillo will be carried on voluntarily or by a paid executive will be determined at a meeting at the City Hall tonight at 8 o'clock. The Scout Council has invited the public to meet with them to discuss the situation, which has arisen since the resignation of Scout Executive G. H. Nassage.
